

Megan's Law

Megan's Law provides two major information services to the public: sex offender registration and community notification. The information contained in the registered sex offender's file will list the offender's name, photograph (if available), type of offense, date of conviction, aliases, year of birth, city, county of residence, and area of employment.

By clicking on the below link, you will be directed to the Pennsylvania State Police website and their searchable database which contains information on registered sex offenders.
